MEMO ENDORSEMENT.

The Court is unable to accommodate the last minute request to convert the oral argument into a remote hearing. Therefore, the hearing will proceed in-person as scheduled on January 24, 2022 at 2:00PM in Courtroom 15C at the 500 Pearl Street Courthouse.

Re: United States v. Lawrence Ray
20 Cr. 110 (LJL)

1/24/2022 SO ORDERED.

LEWIS J. LIMAN
United States District Judge

Dear Judge Liman:

We write on behalf of Lawrence Ray in the above-captioned case pursuant to the Court's January 19, 2022 order that defense counsel meet and confer with (1) counsel for Jane Doe 1 concerning the proposed redactions to Jane Doe 1's Rule 17 medical records, and (2) the government and complainants' counsel concerning whether the hearing scheduled for Monday, January 24, 2022 should be converted to a remote proceeding in light of Covid-related concerns.

On Friday, January 21, 2022, defense counsel met and conferred with counsel for Jane Doe 1 concerning their proposed redactions to Jane Doe 1's medical records. Upon review of the records, counsel for Jane Doe 1 noted that there are redactions they may be willing to unredact, and agreed to re-review the records with an eye on that issue. Because counsel for Jane Doe 1 was in the midst of review of another set of records from a different provider, redactions of which they produced later that day, counsel stated that they will aim to re-review the redactions discussed the week of January 24.

With respect to the conference scheduled for Monday, January 24, 2022, the government informed the defense that they conferred with counsel for the complainants and all parties are comfortable proceeding remotely. Mr. Ray also consents to a remote proceeding that day.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

Hon. Lewis J. Liman

Respectfully submitted,
